

A group of construction workers in safety gear, including hard hats and high-visibility clothing, standing in a studio setting. One worker in the center is wearing a bright orange high-visibility suit and a yellow hard hat, holding a red tool. To his left, another worker in a brown jumpsuit and yellow hard hat stands with his hands on his hips. To the right, a worker in a grey shirt and yellow hard hat stands with his hands on his hips. In the background, a yellow ladder is visible, and another worker in blue overalls is partially seen on the ladder. The image is framed by a white and red diagonal graphic on the right side.
